

DETAILED INTINERARY
Learning from Other North Carolina Cities
 Charlotte, NC - July 22, 2008

Time
7:00 am	Leave Greensboro. In Concord, stop at rest stop Milepost 59.
9:00 am	Arrive in Charlotte Welcome: Susan Schwartz, Action Greensboro Speakers: Ron Kimble, Deputy City Manager and Jim Zingale, Deputy Director for Charlotte Area Transit
9:15 am	Board LYNX, Charlotte's light rail system. Tyvola LYNX station, 5703 Old Pineville Road
9:40 am	Arrive at CTC Station. (Charlotte Transportation Center / Arena Station) 303 E. Trade Street, Charlotte, NC 28202 Walk to Bank of America, International Trade Center (ITC)
10:00 am	Charlotte/Mecklenburg Major Milestones International Trade Center, 200 North College Street Introductions: Ed Kitchen, Action Greensboro Welcome: Jennifer Roberts, Chair, Mecklenburg County Commissioners; Susan Burgess, Mayor Pro Tem, City of Charlotte Presentation and Panel Discussion Curt Walton, Charlotte City Manager Ron Kimble, Charlotte Deputy City Manager Harry Jones, Mecklenburg County Manager Bob Morgan, President, Charlotte Chamber of Commerce Moderator: Ron Kimble, Charlotte Deputy City Manager Primary Topics: 1) Partnerships: Between City and County Government / Between Public and Private Sectors. 2) Use of Alternative Revenue Sources
11:45 pm	Depart for lunch (walk across street). Location: Bank of America Corporate Center
BREAK	30 minutes
12:15 pm	Turning Vision into Action Lunch at Bank of America Corporate Center 100 North Tryon Street, 59 th floor. Introductions: Jim Melvin, Action Greensboro Welcome: Pat McCrory, Mayor, City of Charlotte Speakers: Hugh McColl, former Chairman and CEO, Bank of America
1:15	Wrap up lunch. Walk back to ITC building for workshops

BREAK	30 minutes
1:45 pm	Afternoon Workshops Public Transportation and Public Spaces, Room 113  Welcome: Jim Westmoreland, Assistant City Manager, City of Greensboro  Speakers: Transit Center (light rail, bus) - Jim Schumacher, Assistant City Manager; Jim Zingale, Deputy Director for CATS;  Little Sugar Creek Greenway - Jim Garges, Park and Recreation Director Public Art - Public Art Projects, Percent for Art, Room 108  Welcome: Jeanie Duncan, President and CEO, United Arts Council of Greater Greensboro, Inc.  Speakers: Katie McCoy, Budget &amp; Evaluation; Jean Greer, Arts &amp; Science Council Center City and Development Guidelines, Room 109  Welcome: Ed Wolverton, President and CEO, Downtown Greensboro Inc.  Speakers: Michael Smith, President, Charlotte Center City Partners; Dan Thilo, City Planning Commission Public/Private Partnerships and Development Financing, Room 114  Welcome: Ed Kitchen, Vice President and COO, Joseph M. Bryan Foundation  Speakers: Tom Flynn, Economic Development Director; Bobbie Shields, County General Manager
3:00	Return to street level and gather to board bus (College Street and 5 th intersection)
3:30 pm	Metropolitan Midtown Speaker: Peter Pappas, Pappas Properties, developer for Metropolitan Midtown. City and County staff will join us.
4:30 pm	Depart for Greensboro. Leaving from Wendy's Restaurant, 715 Charlottetowne Ave)